Divers

128.
Divers slain, and lye strewed in the way to Yorke, for four miles together,

Others that fled to Pomfret, were pursued as far as Ferry Bridge.

4 Brasse pieces of Ordnance,

7 Barrels of Powder

16 Bundles of Match.

2000 Armes or above.

Many horse and foot

Of the Colours that are taken there are yet but 17 come into Hull

500 and odde horse

1600 Common Souldiers.

All their Bag and baggage

Many ships upon the Road, taken in the Channell, amongst which is the Pinnace which was taken at Gainsborough.

There is in one ship lading in the chan-nell.

8 peeces of Ordnance, besides the rest,

It is very probable that York will be in the Parliaments hands in few days:
